Dear Community Member,

Get your dancing feet in the sand at this year's FREE Memorial Day Weekend Beach Concert "Sun, Sand & Swing" in Treasure Island on Saturday, May 24, 2008.

On the big Treasure Island beach stage this year is the Greg Billings Band, a classic rock n roll party band. Locals remember them as Stranger back in the 80's and later as Damn the Torpedoes. They're fun, high-energy rock star pros.

Also, on the musical bill this year are the velvety, swinging sounds of Lounge Cats. Described as reverent satire, this versatile six piece combo looks young - but plays Old School Blues, Jazz, Swing, Ska, standards, Motown and Latin numbers. This Rat Pack nouveau will swing, swagger and sway their way into your heart.

The Mad Beach Band, the top drawing, most popular party band on the west coast of Florida during the 1970's early 80's, reunites for Treasure Island's Sun, Sand & Swing with their laid-back Floribbean stories and attitude intact. Consummate performers with funky, offbeat humor, The Mad Beach Band portray, rather than just deliver, a song.

Often called "beach country", Tom Gribbin and the Saltwater Cowboys are a bit of Buffett with a gallon of Gill and a sprinkle of Skynard. One of Jimmy Buffett's favorites, Gribbin and the guys make their music an adventure from bayous to buttes.

Opening acts include local high school jazz bands and Dixieland.
